IPA Switxboard

Since its inception in 2016, the Innovation and Planning Agency (IPA switxboard) has evolved from an idea into a well-established social enterprise covering the countries of Tunisia, Iraq, Germany, Austria and USA, on the premise of supporting disadvantaged communities by unlocking their potential for economic and social growth through providing global network of resources as well as nurturing and inspiring a new generation of responsible leaders the world.

IPA switxboard's migration program follows its connectivity approach in so far that groups of concern receive direct immediate relief and counselling assistance to identify the best matching services in line with the individual profiles. This referral mechanism is facilitated through a technological supported information service through which relevant social and technical services throughout Tunisia are made accessible.

Context

Tunisia being a country of destination and transit for migration, the rise of irregular migration raises new questions about ways to effectively address this phenomenon.

The "Harraga" project aims to better support those who are in particular need of protection, but also to develop solutions and alternative perspectives to support sustainable development objectives.

Groups of Concern

- Vulnerable migrants living in Tunisia
The emphasis here is in particular on vulnerable migrants, victims of violence and/or sexual violence and human trafficking who are not sufficiently protected and cared for.  Target number 600
- Repatriates
Tunisians repatriated from Europe (voluntarily or involuntarily) and who need support for reintegration in order not to attempt irregular migration.  Target number 600
- Tunisians who may potentially engage in irregular migration attempts
These are mainly teenagers and young adults attempting to cross borders from "hot spots" such as Zarzis, Medenine, Tunis, Sfax, ...  Target number 4000

Harraga Project globally 5 200 persons of concern as follows

Project Goals

- Addressing irregular migration from Tunisia through direct «Grassroot» engagement with the groups of concern
- Integration of Tunisians returnees (voluntarily or involuntarily) from Europe.
- Perspective development of and with migrants and potentially vulnerable people
- Ensuring sustainability of supported projects and initiatives implemented by groups of concern and civil society partners
